

Battle of the Genders Final on Thursday

02.08.2006

The finals of the Battle of the Genders will take place Thursday, February 9, on the campus of Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford with four students winning trips to Cancun.

Everyone is invited to the competition that begins at 5 p.m. in the Wellness Center that will include races on various obstacle courses involving a food buffet, football drills, tired wood, 5-legged race and balancing act.

Thursday's event will also feature a live radio remote by KJ 103 radio station, which will be providing various giveaway items and prizes for students who attend the Battle of the Genders.

Teams of four (all men or all women) have been competing this week in various competitions sponsored by the Collegiate Activities Board.
